THE ROLL OF SCOTTISH BARONS

EXTRACT AS AT 17TH NOVEMBER 2026

This is an extract of the Roll of Scottish Barons, an open-source verification roll of baronial titles, kept by the Keepers of the Roll for the Baronage of Scotland Association. It lists the 213 living holders, with each holder's style as entered on the Roll. The Roll itself, with the credentials on which every entry rests, is published at roll.baronage.com.

257	336	140	177
VERIFIED HOLDERS	DIGNITIES	PLEDGED	UNVERIFIED CLAIMANTS

Under the rules of the Roll, unverified titles are not recognised by barons listed below or by cooperating organisations & institutions.

NOTES

1. Only dignities of proven legitimacy are entered on the Roll. The supporting credentials are published on each entry, so the evidence can be examined directly; an entry can be found by its Roll No. at roll.baronage.com/entry/<Roll No.>.
2. Titles awaiting documentary verification are listed separately on the Pending List and are not on the Roll. This does not imply that the title or holder is not genuine.
3. A mark beside a barony shows it is Hereditary on the Roll: pledged upon the Roll as hereditary, not a category of law. It is drawn as the headgear of the holder's own achievement: the chapeau of a baron, the blue chapeau of a representer, or the coronet of a peer's rank.

Baron's Chapeau · Allodial Chapeau · Quondam Chapeau · Princely Coronet · Duke's Coronet · Marquis' Coronet · Earl's Coronet · Viscount's Coronet · Lord of Parliament's Coronet

4. Held since with a year, in place of a mark, records the year in which the current holder succeeded to the dignity.
5. Recognition and legal title are independent of one another. Nothing the Roll does alters the legal position of any barony, and no entry on the Roll changes anyone's legal rights.
6. Where a holder has other baronies, each is listed in its place with "see" and the barony under which the holder is entered.
7. Any error or omission should be reported to the Keepers of the Roll at roll.baronage.com.

COPYRIGHT

This extract and the Roll of Scottish Barons, including the text, entry descriptions, the Roll's labels and marks (such as Hereditary), biographical and genealogical particulars, design, and the selection, arrangement and presentation of the Roll as a whole, are the copyright of the Baronage of Scotland Association unless otherwise stated. They may not be copied, reproduced, republished, distributed or adapted without our prior written permission. The Association claims no copyright in the coats of arms, or in photographs and images of individuals, shown on the Roll.

DATABASE RIGHTS

The Roll is a database. The Baronage of Scotland Association is the maker of, and owns the database right in, the Roll under the Copyright and Rights in Databases Regulations 1997, having made a substantial investment in obtaining, verifying and presenting its contents. The extraction and/or re-utilisation of the whole or any substantial part of the contents of the Roll or of this extract, by manual or automated means, is prohibited, as is the repeated and systematic extraction of insubstantial parts.

PROHIBITED USES

Without our prior written consent you must not copy, scrape, harvest or systematically extract any part of this extract or the Roll; reproduce, republish or redistribute any entry or particulars, in whole or in part; use the contents to build, populate, verify or train any other register, database, directory or dataset; or present our content as your own, or in any way that implies endorsement or affiliation. You may read this extract for personal, non-commercial reference, and you may link to it.

TRADE MARKS

"Baronage Association", "Baronage of Scotland Association", "Roll of Scottish Barons", "Roll of the Baronage", "Roll of the Baronage of Scotland" and the Roll's emblem are trade marks of the Baronage of Scotland Association, as are the domains "Baronage.com", "Baronage.net" and "Baronage.org".

The Association holds these marks defensively, to prevent any other private register trading under the Roll's name or one confusingly similar. It asserts no right against the Crown or the Court of the Lord Lyon, and would assign without charge to any roll established by Royal Warrant or under the Lord Lyon's authority.

The Association makes no claim to the words "Baronage" or "Baronage of Scotland" on their own, which are part of the shared heritage of the Scottish baronage.

ENFORCEMENT

We monitor for unauthorised copying and reserve all rights and remedies available to us, including under copyright and database-right law.
